

Facing Change With Your Children!

As you face the summer months with your children out of school, the routine of their day will change. Perhaps there will be a lot of other changes in the life of your family that will affect your children's lives too. You could be facing a move in the coming months. Perhaps this is the first summer you've worked outside the home. Maybe you're facing a family crisis, or a major decision that will affect the stability of your home life.

There are so many uncontrollable changes that can upset routine, and cause instability in a child's world. Yet, how does God want us to live in midst of change? We are reminded in scripture to be consistent and unwavering in loving God, and in living out his word daily.

“And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. And these words, which I am commanding you today, (all summer!) shall be on your heart; and you shall teach them diligently to your sons (and daughters) and shall talk of them when you sit in your house and when you walk by the way and when you lie down and when you rise up.” Deuteronomy 6:5-7

Take the following acronym for the word change and pass it on to your children. (You will want to remember it for yourself too.)

Cling to God

He is unchanging

Always trust Him

Never give up

Great is His faithfulness

Encourage one another

Have a safe summer, make memories, and speak the name of Jesus daily!

Prayer:

Oh Lord, may I never forget your faithfulness in the midst of change. You are unwavering, immovable, and unchanging in my changing world. Thank you for loving me so much that you give me all that I need through your word to be a Godly mom. Amen
